LDC 31 Aug 1920

S. CLARKE.

HAVING disposed of my business to Mr S. CLARKE, I take this opportunity of thanking my numerous customers for the patronage accorded me over an extended period, and respectfully ask for a continuance of the same to my successor.

H. J. HUGHES.

Levin, August 31, 1920.

NOTICE.

THIS is to notify the general public that I have returned to Levin and taken over the Bakery business previously conducted by me.

By strict attention to business and supplying only first class goods I hope to merit a large share of public patronage.

BREAD AND SMALL GOODS WILL BE OBTAINABLE FRESH DAILY.

H. J. HUGHES.

H. J. Hughes.

Good wholesome bread, scones like a good cook makes at home and a variety of other baker's small goods are on hand fresh every day at H. J. Hughes. Try their Vienna bread—the milk made loaf that is different.

Mr H. J. Hughes. who has conducted a bakery business in Levin for the past nineteen years, is retiring and has disposed of his interests to the Arcadia Bakery, Ltd.
