(On active service)

Dear Colonel,

On the 17th instant news reached us that you had been awarded the Victoria Cross.

Your fellow members, who have followed your doings with the greatest interest, are intensely proud of you; and have met to-night for the purpose of expressing their appreciation of your services to the Empire, and their own admiration of your gallant conduct.

They feel that no decoration was ever more worthily earned, and they very heartily congratulate you, and trust that ere long they may have the pleasure of personally expressing their sentiments toward you, and giving you a hearty welcome home.

We are, yours very sincerely,

John Russell
Jno. Liddle
Chas. Blenklow.
