ROLL OF HONOUR.

Much sympathy will be felt for Mr and Mrs Arthur Muff, of Fairfield, and Mrs J. W. Perkins, of Levin, in the sad bereavement they have just sustained by the death of their son and brother, Rifleman Norman Douglas Muff, who was killed in action on January 4. The young soldier, though only 24 years of

WHITE AND W. THOMSON.

Mr and Mrs J. W. Perkins, accompanied by their little daughter, leave by the Tofua to-morrow for San Francisco, en route to England, where an extended visit will be made to Mr Perkins' parents at Bristol, whose health has not been satisfactory for some time past. Mr Perkins expects to remain in Bristol for the next twelve months.

After an absence of fifteen months, Mr and Mrs J. W. Perkins returned to Levin during the week. They spent over a year in England, principally in Bristol, where Mr Perkins' parents reside. The trip was an enjoyable one, but like most New Zealanders who go abroad, they are glad to be back again in the Dominion once more. In the course of a chat to a Chronicle representative, Mr Perkins gave a few impressions of the conditions in England at the present time.
