Advert 17 Mar 1925

THE TAIERI TEA AND LUNCHEON ROOMS, Levin.

Mrs. C. Redfern, proprietress of the above tea-rooms, is always pleased to welcome visitors to Levin, and can assure them of first-class fare and attention at the Taieri Tea Rooms, upstairs, near Stiles and Matheson's, in Oxford street. Motorists passing through the town can obtain a nice refreshing morning or afternoon tea, served with dainty cakes, scones, sandwiches, etc. The prices are very moderate, and the attention is the best. Those who regularly patronise this establishment for luncheon speak in the highest terms of praise of both fare and the excellent manner in which it is served.

NOTICE.

I HAVE DISPOSED of my Milk Run to Mr W. H. Bell and would solicit for him the same generous patronage that has been extended to me.

C. REDFERN.
